Paul's Story

I completed the tracker regularly. I worked on eating better, intermittent fasting, exercising and being with positive people. I started using herbal remedies and supplements, like Omega-3 and turmeric. I got stronger. I took time to look at my life and where it was all going for me and what I really wanted to do moving forward. Recovery is always a work in progress for me.